Academic Standards Committee – Thursday 23 April 2009

Update on Proposals Recommended by Programme Approval Groups

Ms Helen Butcher, Clerk to the Committee

Since the PAG reports (papers ASC 08/56 - 59) were circulated with the ASC agenda, there has been progress with some of the outstanding actions necessary for full approval of proposals. The following proposals are now recommended for approval:

Faculty of Law, Business & Social Sciences

LLM Corporate & Financial Law	New
MSc Criminology & Criminal Justice	New
MSc Financial Risk Management	New
MSc International Corporate Finance & Banking	New
MSc International Financial Analysis	New
MSc Legal & Political Thought	New
MAcc International Accounting & Financial Management	Change
MFin International Finance	Change

ASC is therefore invited to approve the above proposals in addition to those proposed in the original PAG reports.

ASC is also invited to note that the Pg Diploma in Celtic & Viking Archaeology should be added to the list of proposals from the Faculty of Arts, although approval of this proposal remains subject to satisfactory completion of actions identified in 1.5 of the report (paper ASC 08/56).
