

University of Glasgow

Academic Standards Committee – Friday 23 May 2014

Update Report from the Programme Approval Group for the College of Science & Engineering, held on 17 March 2014

Ms H Clegg, Senate Office

Brief description of the paper

Update report from the ASC Programme Approval Group for the College of Science & Engineering, further to the report submitted to ASC on 15 April 2014.

Action Requested

ASC is requested to note the updates from the Programme Approval Group and to confirm its recommendations.

The PAG confirms that all requirements have now been met and recommends the following programmes:

MSc Biomedical Engineering	New
MSc Civil Engineering	New
MSc Sensor & Imaging Systems	New
MSc Psychological Science (previously MSc Psychology) (Conversion)	New
MSc Data Science	New

The PAG cannot recommend approval of the following programmes at present:

BSc (Hons) Computing Science with Specialism	New
BSc (Hons) Computing Science with Specialism (Faster Route)	New
MSci Computing Science with Specialism	New
MSci Computing Science with Specialism (Faster Route)	New

Recommended Person/s responsible for taking the action(s) forward

Actions will be taken forward by College administrative staff and progress monitored by the Clerk of the Programme Approval Group.

Resource implications (where appropriate).

As identified by proposers.

Timescale for Implementation (where appropriate)

As soon as possible.

Equality Implications (where appropriate)

Not applicable.