

University of Glasgow

Academic Standards Committee – Friday 6 October 2017

Scotland's Rural College (SRUC): Proposal to Amend the Date of the Revalidation of the MSc Agricultural Professional Practice Programme

Robbie Mulholland, Clerk to the Joint Board

Outline of Proposal

The MSc Agricultural Professional Practice programme at SRUC was validated by Academic Standards Committee (ASC) in May 2015 for a six-year period with effect from session 2015-16. Re-validation of the programme will therefore be required prior to session 2020-21. At the recent SRUC-UoG Interim Meeting, SRUC advised that they proposed to re-schedule the revalidation to bring it into line with the revalidation timetable for other SRUC programmes.

Action Requested

Academic Standards Committee is asked to approve a request from SRUC to bring forward the date of the re-validation event for the MSc Agricultural Professional Practice to February 2018.

Recommended persons responsible for taking actions forward

SRUC.

Resource Implications

None identified.

Timescale for Implementation

The proposed date for the re-scheduled validation is February 2018.

Equality Implications

No equality implications have been identified.